

Equality and Diversity Policy

1. Our aim

- 1.1. In carrying out its functions, Avalon Community Energy Limited (ACE) is committed to promoting equality of opportunity for all and to ensuring that no individual is discriminated against in the planning and delivery of any of our activities.
- 1.2. We therefore aim to ensure that the values of equality, diversity and respect for all are embedded into everything that we do.

2. About our policy

- 2.1. This policy demonstrates ACE's commitment to eliminating discrimination and encouraging and valuing diversity among staff, volunteers, partners, suppliers, users of our services and Directors.
- 2.2. We recognise our responsibilities under the Equality Act 2010<sup>1</sup>, and are committed to meeting them in full. We believe that a culture that embraces equality and that values diversity will help us to ensure that everyone feels involved and included in our plans, programmes and activities.
- 2.3. We aim to create an environment which respects and welcomes everyone, and in which no form of bullying, harassment, disrespectful or discriminatory behaviour is tolerated by anyone towards anyone. This particularly applies in relation to the 'protected characteristics' named in the Equality Act 2010: Age, disability, gender, marital status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, gender reassignment and sexual orientation, (see below for explanations).

3. Our responsibilities

- 3.1. ACE understands that for equality to be achieved this policy needs to be made understandable to, and embraced by sessional workers, volunteers, suppliers, partners and residents.
- 3.2. The policy is fully supported and welcomed by our Board of Directors.
- 3.3. All Directors, sessional workers, volunteers, suppliers and partners have a responsibility to ensure that their own language and actions are consistent with the spirit as well as the contents of this policy.

<sup>1</sup> If the organisation delivers services for public authorities they should be aware of the requirements of the Public Sector Equality Duty and be guided by its three 'aims'.

3.4. Overall responsibility for the implementation of this policy lies with ACE's Board of Directors.

4. Our commitments

- 4.1. ACE's recognises that an Equality and Diversity Policy alone is not enough to ensure that equality and diversity are central to everything that we do.
- 4.2. We will seek to create an environment in which diversity and the contributions of all staff, volunteers, suppliers, partners, residents and Directors are recognised and valued in all that we do. In this way we hope to provide an example of good equality practice and promote community cohesion within our local community.
- 4.3. In introducing this policy we recognise that many people are unfamiliar with the ways in which discrimination and disadvantage affect people's health, well-being and quality of life. We will therefore support people to develop equalities awareness and understanding.
- 4.4. To ensure that we are meeting the aims and the spirit of this policy we will:
- a) Discuss and review how well we are implementing this policy, and (adjust our practices/develop an action plan) where necessary
  - b) assess any significant new or revised policies and procedures for their impact on equality
  - c) Embed equality and diversity into our development plans
  - d) Ensure our employment practices and procedures are consistent with the aims of this policy.

5. Working with contractors, suppliers and partners

It is important to us that suppliers, contractors and any other individual or organisation working on behalf of ACE are aware of and agree to comply with our equality and diversity policy while that work is underway. In addition we are committed to:

- using accessible venues for events and meetings;
- using plain English, and offering accessible communications, for example, emails, letters, reports and publicity materials as far as it is within our means to do so.

6. Review and Action

- 6.1. We recognise that it is important for us to regularly review this policy to ensure that it reflects up to date equality legislation and best practice.
- 6.2. A review of our Equality and Diversity Policy will be carried out on a (period specified) basis as a minimum and any necessary actions taken.

Equality Act 2010 – Explanation of the Protected Characteristics

Age: An age group includes people of the same age and people of a particular range of ages. Where people fall in the same age group they share the protected characteristic of age.

An age group would include “over fifties” or twenty-one year olds. A person aged twenty-one does not share the same characteristic of age with “people in their forties”. However, a person aged twenty-one and people in their forties can share the characteristic of being in the “under fifty” age range.

Disability: A person has a disability if they have a physical or mental impairment, and the impairment as a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

This section replaces similar provisions in the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 and provisions in secondary legislation made under that Act.

Marriage and civil partnership: A person has the protected characteristic of marriage and civil partnership if the person is married or is a civil partner.

- A person who is engaged to be married is not married and therefore does not have this protected characteristic.
- A divorcee or a person whose civil partnership has been dissolved is not married or in a civil partnership and therefore does not have this protected characteristic.

Pregnancy and maternity: A woman is protected against discrimination on the grounds of pregnancy and maternity during the period of her pregnancy and any statutory maternity leave to which she is entitled. During this period, pregnancy and maternity discrimination cannot be treated as sex discrimination. You must not take into account an employee’s period of absence due to pregnancy related illness when making a decision about her employment.

Race: Race is defined as

- a. Colour: includes being black or white.
- b. Nationality: includes being a British, Australian or Swiss citizen.
- c. Ethnic or national origins: include being from a Roma background or of Chinese heritage. A racial group could be “black Britons” which would encompass those people who are both black and who are British citizens.

This section replaces similar provisions in the Race Relations Act 1976. However, the power to add caste to the definition of race is a new provision.

Religion or belief: Religion means any religion and a reference to religion includes a reference to a lack of religion.

- A religion must have a clear structure and belief system. Denominations or sects within a religion can be considered to be a religion or belief, such as Protestants and Catholics within Christianity.
- A belief means any religious or philosophical belief and a reference to belief includes a reference to a lack of belief. A “philosophical belief” must
  - Be genuinely held;

- Be a belief and not an opinion or viewpoint based on the present state of information available;
- Be a weighty and substantial aspect of human life and behaviour;
- Attain a certain level of cogency, seriousness, cohesion and importance;
- Be worthy of respect in a democratic society, compatible with human dignity and not conflict with the fundamental rights of others.

Any cult involved in illegal activities is not covered. Beliefs such as humanism and atheism would be covered.

This section replaces similar provisions in the Employment Equality (Religion or Belief) Regulations 2003 and the Equality Act 2006.

Sex:

- a. a reference to a person who has a particular protected characteristic is a reference to a man or to a woman;
- b. a reference to persons who share a protected characteristic is a reference to persons of the same sex.

Sexual orientation: is a person's sexual orientation towards:

- people of the same sex as him or her (in other words the person is a gay man or a lesbian)
- people of the opposite sex from him or her (the person is heterosexual)
- people of both sexes (the person is bisexual).

The definition is designed to replicate the effect of similar provisions in the Employment Equality (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2003 and the Equality Act 2006.

Gender reassignment: A person has the protected characteristic of gender reassignment if the person is proposing to undergo, is undergoing or has undergone a process (or part of a process) for the purpose of reassigning the person's sex by changing physiological or other attributes of sex.
